

CARMA

Non-formal learning for student motivation

COLLABORATIVE LEARNING AS A ROAD TOWARDS EDUCATIONAL SUCCESS

FINAL EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

4TH-5TH
OCTOBER 2018

COLLABORATIVE LEARNING AS A ROAD TOWARDS EDUCATIONAL SUCCESS

FINAL EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Thursday 4TH October 2018

Royal Library of Belgium Meeting Center
Mont des arts, 1000 Brussels

09:00 – 09:30	Registration of participants, coffee and refreshments
09:30 – 9:45	Opening welcome and introduction to the conference	Project coordinator CESIE

PLENARY SESSIONS I (key note speakers to be announced shortly)

09:45 – 11:15	Early school leaving, challenges in Europe and EU actions and priorities
	Collaboration in an educational context – what does collaborative learning in the classroom mean in terms of policy and practice?
	The CARMA project – experiences and results for fostering student motivation through non-formal learning as a collaborative learning strategy for schools	Project coordinator CESIE
11:15 - 11:45	C O F F E E B R E A K
11:45 – 12:15	CARMA Inclusion strategy: how can we incorporate collaborative learning in the school curriculum?	Gianna Cappello, School Policy Expert
12:15 – 12:30	Plenary sessions I round up	Project coordinator CESIE
12:30 – 14:00	N E T W O R K I N G L U N C H

PARALLEL SESSIONS I (participants have the chance to participate in two parallel sessions, which are designed to be participatory and facilitate discussions on key topics relating to the CARMA project)

14:00 -15.00	Non-formal educational methods within formal educational systems and its impact on teacher and students' motivation and participation	University of Murcia and INOVA+
--------------	---	------------------------------------

	This session will discuss the topic of bringing non-formal learning into higher education and teacher training
	Collaborative learning in the digital world: the role of ICT in collaborative learning practices, how to learn by coding	DOGA schools
	This session will discuss learning by coding and understanding the benefits in schools, exposing tech concepts to students, digital citizenship etc.
	Supporting the learning process - building collaborative relationships between students and teachers
	This session will discuss factors effecting the learning process of students i.e. social, emotional, and academic factors within learning and how these factors link to ESL, low attainment and disengagement. The session will explore assessing learners' progress using the Reciprocal Maieutic Approach (RMA)	CESIE

15:00 – 15:30 C O F F E E B R E A K

PARALLEL SESSIONS II

	Assessing collaborative learning outcomes
	This session will discuss best practices in assessing teachers' skills and competence development when delivering collaborative learning in the classroom. The Teacher Competence Assessment Model developed in the CARMA project will be a key discussion point).	Pistes Solidaires
15.30 – 16:30	Teachers experiences in fostering student achievement and motivation through collaborative learning	University Colleges Leuven- Limburg
	The teachers from Belgium that participated in the CARMA project will share and discuss their experiences in testing collaborative learning practices in the classroom
	Policies and initiatives: what EU can do to bring the evidence forward?
	This session will discuss the evidence of impact of CARMA on school teachers and students across Italy, Belgium, Spain, France, Portugal, Austria and Turkey and in relation to the CARMA policy recommendations and EU priorities for school education discussing "what's next?"	Verein Multikulturell

PLENARY SESSION II

16:30 - 17:00	Schools for the future: what to expect from EU2030?
17:00	Close of conference day one (by CESIE)	Project coordinator CESIE

Friday 5TH October 2018

Educational Visits, *Brussels

VISIT TO UNESCO KOEKELBERG ATHENAEUM

09:00 - 11:30

Located in Brussels, the UNESCO Atheneum Koekelberg strives to inspire and motivate the pupils within a pleasant school climate and to prepare them for successfully completing higher studies.

Through the many projects as a UNESCO school, youngsters experience themselves to have a large share in positive changes and thus contribute to a safe, tolerant and clean world.

University
Colleges Leuven-
Limburg

13:30 – 16:00

VISIT TO BE CONFIRMED

University
Colleges Leuven-
Limburg

 Detailed information about the educational visits and their location will be provided later in a detailed guide for participants*